

Dr. Hamed A. Hamadah

Brief Biography

Dr. Hamed Hamadah, is holding a PhD in Electrical Engineering from Essex University, United Kingdom in 1986. In 1992 he worked as Dean to the college of technological Studies, Kuwait for 6 years, and has served as a member of consultation committees for various projects. He utilizes keen analysis, insights and team approach to drive organizational improvement and implementation of best practices. He also contributed in many studies, surveys, seminars and in sitting the plans needed for new employees through man power & Government restructuring Programs.

Dr. Hamadah is a member of board of trustees in K-tech since 2005 until today. He is holding the chairman of the board and placed a very important role as front end to meet with the senior officials in the PUC and other authorities and government. K-tech is two years private comprehensive Institution of higher learning establishment, which also provides flexible degree programs. K-tech also has international partnership with U.S bases Kaplan University.

In 1998 he joined the Private Healthcare sector, during which he gained vast contacts with the decision makers of the Ministry of Health in Kuwait. He directly supervised the processes for the international standards related to hospital constructions and medical equipment during the construction of New Mowasat hospital, Kuwait. He was responsible for day to day of the hospital till 2003. He was promoted as Executive Assistance CEO from 2003 of Mowasat holding co. and served until 2007. During his career with Mowasat he successfully coordinate the planning and operations development of a new facility to replace the old. He also developed the comprehensive plan to bring the facility closer to contemporary Healthcare standards. He created a vision for exceptional support services to enhance the patient experience and satisfaction.

He joined YIACO Medical Co. in June 2007 till May 2013 as a Managing Director & Chairman. He was responsible for all profit and loss accountability, creating business plan, growth strategy, establishing international partnership and building operating units. Dr. Hamadah is an Innovative and result-oriented leader developing vision, mission, goals identifying profitability and revenue opportunity. It was during his first year in YIACO that YIACO was listed in Kuwait Stock Market. Dr. Hamadah had been appointed as a CEO position of YAICO since May 2013 until September 2015 and also as a consultant since September 2015 until May 2016.

Presently Dr. Hamadah is holding the position of Chairman and CEO for CRUX IT Company. CRUX is recognised as a Software and Technology integrated solution which are developed by crux technicians as well as through Microsoft Dynamics products. Crux delivers its services at the highest standard.